Ropers and racers mark 20 years for Baker Arena

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Elk Point and District Agricultural Society's C. G. Baker Riding Arena celebrated its 20th anniversary this past weekend with a huge and enthusiastic influx of barrel racers and team ropers who kept the action going from early Saturday morning until late Sunday evening. More than 100 barrel racers and an unprecedented 238 teams of ropers took part in the event.

Team roping was the first event on Saturday and the last on Sunday, with the very long list of ropers divided into two groups for three preliminary rounds and a short go for each group on both days.

Points from the total of eight go-rounds were added up Sunday evening, and determined Gord Ziegler of Lloydminster to be the High Point Header, with Mark Fletcher of Wainwright as the High Point Heeler. The two received saddles sponsored by a number of area businesses. Close behind in the points race were runner-up header Scott McDowell, who recently moved to the Elk Point area, and heeler Denny Bohnet of Mayerthorpe, who took home breast collars sponsored by the Empress Restaurant.

Barrel racing came second on Saturday's program and resumed bright and early Sunday, with competitors divided into youth and open divisions.

Hannah Porozni of St. Paul topped the youth lineup to win the High Point Youth Barrels buckle sponsored by Gaugler Quarter Horses, with Wyatt Walterhouse of Marwayne as the runner-up, taking home a pencil drawing sponsored by Tara Campbell.

Rebecca Paradis of Bonnyville was the winner of the Open Barrels High Point trophy saddle sponsored by B and R Eckels, while hometown cowgirl Ruby Braconnier placed second for a second pencil drawing from Tara Campbell.

Sox head to Provincials

By DOUG BASSETT
Review Sports

It's now official, the Elk Point Midget Sox will be traveling to Red Deer and Rocky Mountain House this coming weekend, Friday Saturday and Sunday for the Tier 1 provincial final.

The Sox had applied to host as they always do, but because Elk Point hosted 10 times in the past, including last year, Baseball Alberta thought it was only fair to give it to Rocky this year. Because a eight team tournament needs two diamonds on one of the days, the Sox first two games will be played in Red Deer, Friday at 9 a.m.

against Red Deer and then again at 3 p.m. against Grande Prairie.

On Saturday the team moves to Rocky where the Sox will play Heisler at 3 p.m.

Midget Sox head to Provincials

On Sunday, the semi-final and final are in Rocky Mountain House. The Sox have played well there in the past, and in fact won the Tier 2 provincial gold medal there two years ago. TIER 1, HERE WE COME!

When the time comes, will we be ready? Last weekend the Sox only won one game, beating Rocky Mountain House. They lost the other two games, one by one run in extra innings to Red Deer and by two runs to Camrose.

The coaching staff used almost everyone on the team to pitch an inning or two. Winning these games was not as important as working on a few arms and pitching strategies. The Sox coaching staff needed to evaluate who to pitch and when.

The Sox goal is to play all five games this coming weekend in the provincial final, but with the maximum pitch count rules, it become a real challenge; 110 pitches is the maximum number for the weekend, but if you go over 40 pitches in a day you need a day off, over 54 you need two days rest. Burn a guy on Friday with over 40 pitches, when you might need him on Saturday or over 54 pitches on Friday when you may need him Sunday is not very smart, but on the other hand, saving a pitcher for Sunday and not making it to the semi-final is not a very wise move either. The team with the most depth in the bullpen will most likely win it all.

Silver for "Ozzie"

Up in Peace River this past weekend, the young up and coming star pitcher Austin "Ozzie" Stafford was in a pee-wee provincial final chucking the ball for Goodfish, helping them win the silver medal. "Ozzie" also hammering a few balls driving home some runs.

And now for the K.A.Campbell quote of the week. "It's fun, it's timeless, it's a relationship between a father and a son, it's a transition into manhood. It's a great zen game."

Last week's answer to: "What I am, what I have, what I am going to leave behind me, all this I owe to the game of baseball, without which I would have come out of St. Mary's Industrial School in Baltimore a tailor, and a pretty bad one, at that." - Babe Ruth.

Well worth the effort

Back when Elk Point Agricultural Society proposed building a fairgrounds arena, many in the community predicted that the project was a waste of time and money. The society, however, firmly believed in the adage, "Build it and they will come," and carried on despite the nay-sayers.

A few years later, when the society was wading through immense financial woes, its members may well have wondered if their decision had been a wise one.

However, anyone who saw the entire fairgrounds packed with trailers on the weekend will know that in retrospect, the decision was wise, and all the hard work and worry was worth it in the end. The facility is well-used and much appreciated, and the community benefits from another landmark facility, another dream become reality.

WAY BACK WHEN...

High water, seniors' gold, Sox host provincials

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JULY 26 IN...

1986

The North Saskatchewan River came within a nerve-racking three feet from the road level in Heinsburg, where the school and several teachers were in immediate danger of flooding, and covered riverside roads west of Highway 41 in numerous spots as it crept toward farmyards. Optimism remained the name of the game as oil companies financing heavy oil recovery projects in the area carried on as usual despite a six-month slump in oil prices.

1991

Elk Point Pink Pounders bantam girls won bronze at the provincial bantam baseball championships in Thorhild. Pioneer Circle Society executive members Lillian Palinka, John Williams, Hazel Hannah and Olga Ruzycki took a big step forward as they unlocked the door of their newly acquired building, destined to become the Seniors' Recreation Centre.

1996

Elk Point seniors brought home five gold medals from the Alberta Seniors' Games, Pearl Bepalko winning the 70+ Ladies Low Gross in golf, Florence Demchuk and Jeannette Frisby winning 55+ Ladies' Oldtime Dancing, Marjorie Osinchuk the 55-64 Individual Quilt and Sid Holthe the Serious Non-Fiction division of creative writing. Things were wild and western at Whitney Lake's annual rodeo, where former local cowboy Derek Hehr ended up in a three-way tie in the bullriding and David Bensmiller of Dewberry was the runner-up in Junior Bull Riding.

2001

Mayor Ed Buck and longtime ball supporter Phil Sheplaw officiated in the ceremonial first pitch as Elk Point White Sox hosted the Midget 'A' Provincials, with Wainwright going undefeated in their quest for gold. Danielle Schnurer, Joan Wheat, Meagan Parker, Jill Wheat, Kim Lebold, Chelsea Schnurer and Jamie Schnurer took part in the Elk Point Saddle Slickers 4-H achievement day.

2006

The Midget Sox won the Provincials tournament consolation, but the championship game between Edmonton and Cochrane was first delayed by a downpour and then called to a halt at 10 p.m. because of darkness, leaving the win undecided. It was another above average year for campground attendance in the area.

GUEST COLUMN

Heritage and us

This coming Monday is August 1. Heritage Day is celebrated the first Monday in August in Edmonton, August 1, 2011. In Alberta, Heritage Day is an "optional" civil holiday, having been downgraded from a statutory holiday following the introduction of Family Day in 1990.

The Edmonton Heritage Festival is a three-day celebration of Canada's diverse cultural mosaic. Outdoor ethnic pavilions feature non-stop international singing and dancing, arts and crafts, displays, costumed and samples of wonderful international cuisine.

As Canadian citizens, we all come from a different cultural background. So, yes, it is nice to be able to recognize our differences on Heritage Day. The positive side of this is that we are able to appreciate each other's heritage. Thus if you are able to attend Heritage Days in Edmonton, and you have the chance to visit all the pavilions, it really is a great opportunity to see the different cultures and see how they are all different from each other. However, the bottom line is that we are all Canadians. We do have some similarities. Glen Hunt expresses who we are through a poem.

"Hey!
I am not a lumberjack, or a fur trader.
I don't live in an igloo,
Or eat blubber, or own a dogsled,
And I don't know Jimmy, Suzy or Sally from Canada,
Although I am certain they are really, really nice."

The Elk Point Review publishes a variety of opinions as a contribution to debate on matters of public concern. Unsigned editorials express the view of this newspaper's editorial board which includes the Publisher and the Editor. Signed pieces express the view of the individual writer.

EASTHOPE
from the FCSS desk

I have a prime minister, not a president.
I speak English and French, not American.
I pronounce it "about" not "a boot."
I can proudly sew my country's flag on my backpack.
I believe in peacekeeping, not policing,
Diversity, not assimilation,
And that the beaver is a truly proud and noble animal.
The toque is a hat,
A Chesterfield is a couch,
And "z" is pronounced "zed," not "zee". "Zed!"
Canada is the second largest land mass,
The first nation of hockey and
THE BEST PART OF NORTH AMERICA!!
My name is "Joe," and
"I AM CANADIAN!!!"
Thank you."

I have another story.

"One day, a farmer's donkey fell down into a well. The animal cried piteously for hours as the farmer tried to figure out what to do. Finally he decided the animal was old and the well needed to be covered up anyway. It just wasn't worth it to retrieve the donkey. He invited all his neighbours to come over and help him. They all grabbed a shovel and began to shovel dirt into the well. At first, the donkey realized what was happening and cried horribly. Then, to everyone's amazement, he quieted down. A few shovel loads later, the farmer finally looked down the well and was astonished at what he saw. With every shovel of dirt that hit his back, the donkey was doing something amazing. He would shake it off and take a step up. As the farmer's neighbours continued to shovel dirt on top of the animal, he would shake it off and take a step up. Pretty soon, everyone was amazed as the donkey stepped up over the edge of the well and trotted off!"

You may ask, "How does this story relate to heritage?" Well, one thought is, even though the donkey was old, he still knew how to solve a problem. Likewise, people from our heritage can still give us something of value today.

Nine sisters enjoy trip back in time

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Nine sisters who spent their childhood working, playing and praying together spent a weekend going back in time recently, when one of the sisters, Louise Dunning, invited the other eight to join her at her "Little House on the Prairie."

Dunning surprised her siblings by asking them to dress up like the Ingalls family members, made famous in the books and television show, sister Yvonne taking the role of Caroline Ingalls and sisters Doris, Irene and Thérèse as the Ingalls daughters Laura, Mary Beth and Carrie, while Angèle was Nellie Olson.

"Because there were more of us than of the Ingalls family, we had to invite the Walton girls over so all of us could play a role," Dunning said. She took the role of the oldest Walton girl, Mary Ellen, with her sisters Hélène and Lucille acting as Erin and Elizabeth Walton.

Dunning's husband Gordon was recruited to fill in as John Boy.

"We had a ball!"

The nine had an ideal opportunity to reminisce about their childhood years, spent with their nine brothers. Their parents, the Tremblays, had 19 children in all, with 18 of them living to adulthood. One of the brothers, Denis, passed away in 1999 at age 44 after a five-year battle with cancer.

"We always were together to pray, work and have fun," Dunning says. "Mom and Dad taught us to forgive and love, and always to help others, never be afraid to give. Forgiveness was the most important with our mother."

Both of the parents are gone now, "but what they have taught us is to stay together. God played a big role in all our lives, and after our weekend together, we all want to say to families, 'Stay together, love one another, pray tighter and you will remain together, just like God wants us to be. Kindness starts at home, sweet home.'"
